

Elisa Massoth

Elisa G. Massoth is in private practice in Payette. She is the current Criminal Justice Act Panel Representative for Idaho and past president of the Idaho Association of Criminal Defense Lawyers. The bulk of her 23 years as an attorney have been spent advocating for those charged with all types of crimes, including capital offenses. Other areas of her practice include advising local boards, real estate transactions, business formation and estate planning.